The 23rd Annual Neurosurgery in the Rockies

Pines Lodge • Beaver Creek, Colorado
February 27 - March 3, 2010

2010 Honored Guest Speaker - Hugues Duffau, MD, PhD
Montpellier, France

Presented by the Department of Neurosurgery
University of Colorado Denver School of Medicine

Sponsored by the University of Colorado Denver School of Medicine
Office of Continuing Medical Education

General Information

Neurosurgery in the Rockies is an intimate gathering hosted by the Department of Neurosurgery at the University of Colorado Denver School of Medicine. Our goal is to provide an environment in which neurosurgeons can exchange ideas, meet new friends and enjoy the natural beauty of the Rocky Mountains.

This conference is designed for neurosurgeons, neurologists, interventional neuroradiologists, resident physicians and all individuals with an interest in the clinical neurosciences.

The morning session will address controversial topics in Neurosurgery that will be presented in a point/counterpoint format by our resident staff in collaboration with Mount Sinai School of Medicine in New York. Our honored guest will provide perspective on these issues. The afternoon sessions will consist of clinical and basic science papers presented by the participants.

Course Objectives and Goals

1. Understand the role of aggressive surgical resection in the treatment of WHO grade II gliomas
2. Appreciate the pros and cons of mapping techniques that can be used to maximize surgical resections in eloquent cortex
3. Describe the arguments for and against surgical resection of low-grade gliomas of the insular region

Accreditation

The University of Colorado Denver School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CME CREDIT:

The University of Colorado Denver School of Medicine designates this educational activity for a maximum of 15.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

These credits are also recognized by AANS for CME credit.
